General Comment

To whom it may concern, As a consumer I wish to formally comment on the interim final rule regarding health plans and "grandfathered" status (document ID IRS-2010-0010-0001) . I feel the consumer protection included as part of the new health care law is very important and should extend to as many people as possible . The number of individuals covered by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) should be expanding . The protection to consumers under currently existing "grandfathered" plans should not be weakened or reduced in any way. I specially support the detailed comments offered by the American Chiropractic Association with respect to the implementation of these regulations . Thank you > Suzanne Kirby
